

Kindergarteners from Low-Income Households READINESS

Children from low-income households start school at a disadvantage.

- 31% of kindergarteners from low-income households demonstrate readiness, compared with 56% of children from mid- to high-income households.
- Substantial readiness gaps exist across all domains.

